Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 10 August 2006.
- 2a) ☐ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☒ This action is non-final.
- 3) ☐ Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The claims are generally narrative and indefinite, failing to conform with current U.S. practice. They appear to be a literal translation into English from a foreign document and are replete with grammatical and idiomatic errors.

In claim 1, line 2, the phrase "for example" renders the claim indefinite because it is unclear whether the limitation(s) following the phrase are part of the claimed invention; similarly in claim 2, line 2, "e.g. 40ms" is another example.

Claim 1 recites the limitation "the net voltage rail" in line 2, "the coupling means" in line 4, and "the signal amplifier" in line 5. There are insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim. Many terms throughout the claims lack proper antecedent basis.

Furthermore, the replete use of "or" renders claims indefinite. For instance, the scope of the phrase "the net voltage rail or for example in wall outlet or in other corresponding connecting point or in sphere of influence by data transmission furnished with a supply cable" is unascertainable.

The above are but a few specific examples of improper language used throughout the claims, and are only intended to illustrate the extensive revision required to overcome this rejection. Applicant is required to revise all of the claims, and not just correct the improper language mentioned above.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. As best understood, claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Mavretic (6,046,594).

Mavretic discloses a voltage rail (140), amplifier network (314, 316), band pass filter (314), measuring and handling unit (302, 304, 306), control circuit (328), and load (230).

See figures 2 and 3.
